

Dismantling Recommendation on Disposal at End of Life

A. Composition Explanation – Downlight Type C

Followed drawings are references only

• Main Parts

|                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  01 Diffusor |  02 Light source |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

• Other Parts (If included)

|                  |                         |                     |
|------------------|-------------------------|---------------------|
| 03 Screws | 04 Connector box | 05 Connector |
|------------------|-------------------------|---------------------|

The downlight luminaire is considered as a containing product which comprises:

01 Diffusor

The diffusor may have different shapes, such as Round, Square, Rectangle, Dome etc. Taking the Round as Example; The diffusor may have different surface finishing with matte, glossy, plate, 0-100% transparent etc.

02 Light source

The light source is including Housing body, Driver, PCB with LEDs, AC/DC wires and springs

B. Dismantling

- Type: Without permanent damage

Dismantling Recommendation on Disposal at End of Life

C. Recommendation on Disposal

- Plastic part: Reuse and Recycling
- Electrical part: Incineration and disposal
- Metal part: Recycling

D. The Steps to Remove the Components

1 Using tool to pry the cover

2 Removing Springs and get light source

